71st Hong Kong Schools Music Festival – Prize-winners’ Concerts

The 71st Hong Kong Schools Music Festival closes with a grand finale, the Prize-winners’ Concerts. More than 124,000 students participated in the 71st Hong Kong Schools Music Festival, and they demonstrated the high level musical performances. To enable students to learn from one another and to promote the music appreciation in the community, five concerts of different programmes will be organised in April and May 2019 by the Hong Kong Schools Music and Speech Association.

The performances by outstanding prize-winners selected by the adjudicators include orchestras, bands, choirs, instrumental ensembles, solos, Chinese instruments groups and solos, vocal solos, and kindergarten music activities. With the specially designed programmes, the audience will see the charm and enjoy the wonderful music.

Ticketing:

- Tickets at $80 for the Prize-winners’ Concerts (1) – (4) are available from the URBTIX (www.urbtix.hk) ;
- Free admission on a first-come, first-served basis for the Prize-winners’ Concert (for Sacred Music). Audience members will be admitted if there are vacant seats on the day.

Please visit the Association’s website at www.hksmsa.org.hk for the dates and venues of the Prize-winners’ Concerts.

The Hong Kong Schools Music and Speech Association is a non-profit making organisation founded in 1940. It aims to promote the interest and raise the standard of students and teachers in Western and Chinese music, and in speech, drama, poetry and prose.
